In reference to the items on the previous page:

All students need these items – Graduating Seniors may donate some of these items for freshmen with financial needs. Contact the director to check on availability of used items – All students need these items.

Marching Shoes – All members of the band are required to own identical marching band shoes. I will assume women are ordering women sizes and men ordering men sizes unless you note otherwise. A limited number of used shoes in various sizes are available upon request at a discounted rate of $5. Please e-mail Mr. Walsh for available used stock

Black Socks – All members of the band are required to wear black socks as part of the uniform. Students not wearing black socks with their uniform will be issued a pair of black socks and charged the fee specified on the order form. Socks must be black – not navy blue, gray, or charcoal – black.

Marching Gloves – All woodwind and brass players are required to wear gloves at performances and competitions as part of their uniform. Color Guard and percussion do not wear these gloves.

Garment Bag – This garment bag will be a one-time purchase for use for all years of high school band and will be the student's property.

Students are expected and required to be in Full Uniform, including all required items, when performing.
